Ball Chair

Interesting, exploratory, curious and childlike
The colorful balloons floating in the air are filled with everyone's childhood interest, exploration and curiosity. The Swedish national treasure design combination CKR takes balloon as the design proposition. It integrates the full, light and interesting image of a balloon, presents it in the way of super-round bag, wide inner rack and slender legs, and gives you a full sense of juvenile.

Julep

The soft, wrapped shape is characteristic of this sofa. Influenced by the avant-garde movement of the 1950s, Julep derives its simplicity and grandeur from the contemporary romantic femininity. The upholstered seats look roomy and full, but convey a feeling of lightness, thanks to a hidden substrate that lifts the seat unwittingly from the floor. Their seductive appeal gives a different kind of comfort, making the Julep seating options well suited to public Spaces as well.

sail

The most open lounge furnishings connect unexpected and familiar things, bringing a new perspective to the working environment. The right side of the sofa with a writing board gives people a sense of easy office.

Model: SA311
Size: 1750W*650D*780H*450SH

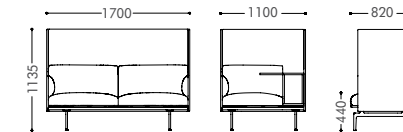

What it creates is the presentation of the so-called "sense of quality" and "atmosphere". It tells not only the existence of an object, but also the story and moving interaction with users in space. Careful observation of the sofa is so smooth, meticulous and full of vitality, because the craftsman's soul behind it can not be made by machinery. Come on.

SA625 contains a generous and decent design concept. It looks tight on the surface of the product, but it feels very soft after actual experience. This apparent contradiction at first appears to make the SA625 all the more attractive. With its curved surface and straight frame, and its tiny legs that flutter outward, the whole shape fits the user like a taut sail. The inside of the sofa is a very soft filling material, with obvious cushioning effect.

Costura

Costura sofa is the noble traditional tailoring that guides the design process. In San Sebastian en, home to famous fashion designers such as Valencia, Artelier Jr. has tailored impeccable suits and dresses for citizens for decades. Stella wants to bring this tradition back and work with craftsmen to create a decoration, like a suit that covers the innovative interior structure. On another occasion, Stuart offered a surprising design that reflected eternity and added innovation.

Suita

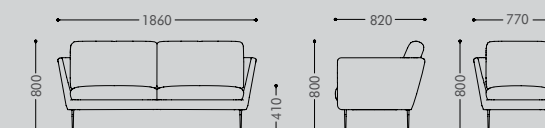

SUITA sofa system combines light volume with industrial and technological aesthetics. Geometrically accurate bodywork and cushions seem to float on smooth bridge-shaped aluminium legs, which can be seen as a tribute to American design in the mid-century. The Suitea Sofa Series consists of many separate components. These can be used as independent elements or free combination to adapt to a variety of indoor environment and decoration needs. Seats and cushions are movable bags to ensure comfort of seat cushions and backpacks.
